

PRIVILEGE 12

1. Gönderim

WORKSHEETS

GRAMMAR PACK

54 TESTS

- Pronouns - Determiners & Quantifiers
- Tenses
- Modals
- The Passive & Causatives
- Adverbial Clauses - Conjunctions & Transitions 1
- Adverbial Clauses - Conjunctions & Transitions 2

VOCABULARY PACK

18 TESTS

READING PACK

30 TESTS

SKILLS PACK

15 TESTS

SKILLS

1. - 10. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun düşün cümleyi bulunuz.

1. Your friend has had many job interviews but hasn't succeeded in finding a job yet. You know that one of her main problems is her difficulty making eye contact while speaking to people. You don't want to hurt her feelings, but you need her to be aware of this, so you say: ----
 - A) It is so great that you have had so many job interviews. You are almost there.
 - B) Aren't you happy in your current job?
 - C) First impression is really important in interviews. Therefore, you need to make sure to dress properly.
 - D) How do you expect to get a job if you do not look at the people who are talking to you?
 - E) I heard an expert saying that one of the most important things during a job interview is keeping eye contact with your interviewer.
2. You are feeling sick. You finally get an appointment with the doctor, but you are not feeling good enough to go there. You call the doctor and ask him to come over. You say: ----
 - A) I am totally fine, there is no reason for me to visit you.
 - B) I can't make it to your place. Perhaps I should call an ambulance.
 - C) Is it possible that you can pay a visit to my place and examine me here?
 - D) The medication you have given me has made it worse.
 - E) Can I postpone our meeting until next week?
3. You want to take part in charity events. When you share your idea with your friends, they say you won't make a difference. You think otherwise. You say: ----
 - A) I thought you were more sensible people.
 - B) I agree, I might not be able to make a difference, but it keeps me busy.
 - C) Every little helps, so I will try my best to help the vulnerable ones.
 - D) I can't make a difference; I already know that.
 - E) I am helping just for the sake of it.
4. You are looking forward to seeing your childhood artist perform on the stage. Finally, she is coming to your town. However, all the tickets are sold out. You are asking a favour from one of your friends to sell his spare ticket to you. You say to him: ----
 - A) If you sell me that one extra ticket, I will feel indebted to you forever.
 - B) I don't need your help; I have already found a spare ticket.
 - C) You are not even a proper fan of her, so why do you want to go?
 - D) I have been a great fan of hers, and I am happy to have the chance to watch her again.
 - E) I know I have become a burden on your shoulder for a very long time, but I don't want to go there by myself.

5. You're making plans to take French lessons, but they conflict with your driving lessons which you consider more important, so you tell your parents: ----

A) This is terrific, I can learn French and driving at the same time.
B) I guess I'll have to take French, which is much more important than driving a car.
C) Based on the evidence provided, I'm confident you'll make the right choice.
D) Weren't you aware of the conflict before you began your decision process?
E) I need to consider my priorities, so I'll take driving lessons instead of French.

6. Your little brother comes home from school with a computer game that doesn't belong to him. He claims he has found it on the floor, but you know it belongs to a classmate. You don't want to make him feel threatened, so you carefully tell him: ----

A) Did you know that there are countries where they cut off your hand if you steal?
B) Are you sure that this game doesn't belong to someone in your class? Maybe we could find out who has lost it.
C) Tell me the truth. Did you steal this from Martin's schoolbag?
D) I heard these video games are very entertaining. Shall we play?
E) Shame on you! I know this video game belongs to a boy in your class.

7. You are at a very exclusive clothing shop. The sales assistant is following you everywhere. You need some space, but you don't want to be rude. You say: ----

A) Your job must be very tiring, following everyone all day and that.
B) Do you mind if I call you when I need your assistance?
C) Would you help me find the right size of this dress?
D) Don't you have anything else to do rather than coming after me?
E) Stop following me, or else, I will go to the manager!

8. Joe is a close friend. He is going through difficult times. You want to help him, but you don't know how. You want to be polite and helpful. You decide that what he needs is encouragement. You tell him: ----

A) You have the potential to do it. I'm sure you will find a way to cope with it.
B) It is alright to admit defeat and live with it.
C) Life is not fair to everyone at all times. You need to be stronger and take the heat.
D) What you need is to get away and have a nice holiday.
E) Everyone has limits. Be sure to not to push them so hard. It may result in a nervous breakdown.

9. You and a friend of yours are browsing shop displays. He likes a ridiculously expensive shirt and is about to buy it although he hasn't got much money. You tell him that he should keep his money. However, he insists and on top of that asks you to lend him some money. Not being able to hide your confusion and emphasizing his irresponsibility, you say: ----

A) This is indeed gorgeous, but you can't afford it.
B) I would rather keep my money to buy it for myself.
C) I am not lending you any money for such a shirt.
D) I can't believe my ears! How extravagant you are is unacceptable and intolerable.
E) Why didn't you ask me for a loan? I would have definitely given you a hand.

10. You really want to watch a thriller, but your boyfriend is not so keen on that kind of movie. He is into drama. You try to persuade him and say: ----

A) I don't want to watch movies anymore.
B) You are a very selfish person; you always get your own way.
C) Why do we always have to do what you want?
D) I am OK with watching drama for this time only.
E) At least for this time, can we watch this action thriller movie, please?

SKILLS

1. - 10. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun düşün cümleyi bulunuz.

1. You receive a phone call from a friend who suddenly starts yelling at you because you haven't met her this morning at the café as you promise. Since you are close friends, you feel open enough to regretfully say: ----
- A) I'm obviously at work, so if you were a good friend, you would know this.
B) I'm so sorry, but it totally slipped my mind. Can we meet this afternoon instead?
C) Didn't we agree that we were meeting in my house instead?
D) You should be careful with your words as you will regret it later.
E) I was just about to call to say that I won't make it in the afternoon.
2. Your younger sister wants to attend university but doesn't feel confident about her test scores enough to apply for a scholarship that you recommend to her. To encourage her to apply, you say: ----
- A) Your application won't be accepted anymore now that the deadline is over.
B) You should take a chance, despite the fact that there are many more qualified candidates than you.
C) With your test scores, I doubt you'll be awarded the scholarship.
D) Feel free to apply, although I think it's honestly a waste of your time and effort.
E) You should definitely apply because you will have a high profile among all the others.

3. You have difficulty in writing academic essays. To improve it, you enrolled in a writing course. However, the tutor has not showed up for the lesson for a week now. You are in the administrator's room complaining about the situation. You tell the administrator: ----
- A) I want a full refund for my money as the teaching style of the tutor doesn't appeal to me.
B) The teacher does not even bother to come to classes. What kind of place is this?
C) Do you think I should change my mind about this course?
D) I think the tutor of our course is sick. She won't teach us today.
E) Do you know another place that offers writing courses?
4. You are working for a charity which helps people who suffer from an incurable disease. You explain to the donators why they should donate money, saying: ----
- A) Epidemics require quarantine and careful examination as biologists need to do some research on patients.
B) We should not show any mercy to the ones found guilty of attempted murder.
C) It is very difficult for the convicts to continue their life after they are released. We need to help them build a new life.
D) There are many underprivileged people who are in need of medical help out there, and we are here to help them.
E) It is important to stand for our rights and retrieve what is rightfully ours.

5. You have to buy a bus ticket to your town. On the website you see that tickets are available for the date you want to travel; however, the website doesn't allow you to purchase the ticket online. You call the customer service to book a ticket and say: ----

A) The website displays available seats for 20th January. Can I make a reservation?
B) I think there is something wrong with the website.
C) I would like to buy a round ticket for January 20th.
D) Is it possible to purchase tickets online?
E) Can I have a refund for my ticket?

6. You work as a human resources manager, and you are interviewing a candidate at the moment. He has worked at too many different jobs. You directly ask him the reason: ----

A) As far as I see, you have worked at a range of diverse jobs. Do you get bored easily?
B) You don't seem to like IT jobs, do you?
C) What do you usually do in your leisure time?
D) What is the best thing you have done up to now?
E) It seems you have several interests. Can you name some of them?

7. Nicole has decided to take up sailing because she loves the sea. You support the idea, but it's winter, and you feel she should wait until the summer, so you say: ----

A) It would be safer to sail when there aren't that many boats around.
B) Did you know that sailing is a sport that can be started at any age?
C) Make sure you wear a diving suit in case the weather gets too cold.
D) I heard that lessons are more affordable for groups in summer.
E) It could be potentially dangerous to start lessons when the wind is so strong.

8. You are late for your appointment in an employment agency. This is an important meeting for your future career. You are on your way, but there is a traffic jam. So you call the agency and say: ----

A) Sorry, I can't make it on time. Can we arrange it at another time?
B) There is a traffic jam, so don't wait for me today.
C) I am sorry for the delay, but I have been held up in the traffic for half an hour.
D) I wish I had known that there is a strike today, then, I would have left early.
E) I am sorry to inform you at such short notice, but something important came up.

9. You have tickets for a rock concert but have come down with the flu. The tickets were quite expensive, and you are short of money, so you don't want to give them away. Uncomfortable about selling them to your friend, you say: ----

A) Even though you are my best friend, it would be thoughtless of you not to pay for the tickets.
B) Consider the tickets a donation to a good friend.
C) Unfortunately, I need to be reimbursed for the tickets because I am on a tight budget.
D) It's such bad luck that I am ill; I hope you enjoy the concert.
E) Sorry I am selfish, but you need to pay for it if you want to come too.

10. As you're walking home from school with your friend, you realize that you've left your homework in your locker, and tomorrow is the due date for it. When you ask your friend to return to school with you, he refuses it, so you say: ----

A) You're right; it's safely locked up. No one will be able to steal it tonight.
B) I really can't accompany you; I have to attend a meeting that's crucial for my project.
C) You're never selfish when it comes to doing a favour.
D) Even though my homework is important, I have plenty of time to finish it. I'll get it tomorrow.
E) The deadline is tomorrow, so I have to go back whether you come with me or not.

SKILLS

1. - 8. sorularda, karşılıklı konuşmanın boş bırakılan kısmını tamamlayabilecek ifadeyi bulunuz.

1. Beatrice:
– Where have you been? I have been looking for you all over the place!
- Joanna:
– ----
- Beatrice:
– That is not an excuse for your behaviour. I was so worried.
- Joanna:
– I am so sorry. Please forgive me.
- A) I am sorry; I was really tired, so I went to the coffee shop to sit for a while.
B) I was standing next to you. How could you not see me?
C) Oh really? Were you going to say something important?
D) I did not know that I had to tell you my whereabouts!
E) Me too. I've got some news to tell you.
2. Christina:
– I always like to dine out. However, with this economic recession, it is not possible anymore.
- Karla:
– ----
- Christina:
– I don't want to stress you out, but I think it is already happening now.
- Karla:
– I wonder how the government plans to cope with this increased unemployment and inflation.
- A) Why do you say so?
B) I never dine out. My family has this strict tradition to eat only home-made food.
C) I think one of us has to start looking for a job immediately.
D) Yes. I know what you mean. I think it is going to get worse in the coming months.
E) I can't remember when was the last time I went out to dine with my boyfriend.

3. Passenger:
– I'm trying to reach Central Park from here. Could you be of assistance to me?
- Bus driver:
– You've taken the wrong bus. You'll need to take the bus going in the opposite direction.
- Passenger:
– ----
- Bus driver:
– It'd be too complicated for you if I told you now. Ask the other driver once you get on.
- A) How could I have not seen the correct bus number?
B) After I get on it, at what stop should I get off?
C) Don't confuse me with too many directions.
D) Why didn't you let me know when I first got on the bus?
E) It's up to you if you want to get off now or later.
4. Rebecca:
– Ever since my dentist informed me of the dangers of smoking to one's teeth, I've completely given it up.
- Elizabeth:
– I'm not convinced. What makes you so sure?
- Rebecca:
– ----
- Elizabeth:
– Perhaps I should take the opportunity to speak with my dentist before it's too late.
- A) Actually, I find the warnings to be over-exaggerated.
B) That's downright ridiculous. If you're not sure now, then there's no point trying to persuade you.
C) For me to properly explain I would need more time than what's allotted to me.
D) I'll talk to your dentist tomorrow if you'd like, but I don't think he'll listen to my opinion.
E) He showed me charts and diagrams as evidence to its adverse effects.

5. Lily:
– Are we going out tonight?
- Sian:
– ----
- Lily:
– Why do you always leave everything to the last minute? I thought you finished it last night.
- Sian:
– I know I should have been done with it, but I have been a bit distracted lately.
- A) Yes, sure. See you at ten sharp!
B) I am getting ready, but I can't find my keys.
C) You know I have a school project, but I have still a lot of time to complete it.
D) I am sorry, but I am still working on my assignment.
E) Let's go to this new place which is so popular!

6. Ricky:
– It is not fair that they are charging twice as much at peak hours.
- James:
– ----
- Ricky:
– But still, people who go to work pay for it.
- James:
– Well, you can always get a weekly travel card, so you don't have to pay more.
- A) This is definitely a meaningless policy.
B) I don't use public transportation, so I don't know about the fares.
C) It is to discourage people who don't work from using public transportation at peak hours.
D) I think you get carried away with politics too often.
E) I wish I was more knowledgeable to be able to help you out.

7. Chris:
– It would take 2 to 3 days to bring all the men to surface.
- Fay:
– ----
- Chris:
– Are you not listening to me? I am still talking about the trapped miners in Chile!
- Fay:
– I must have drifted away. Sorry.
- A) That is very good news after such a long time.
B) Really? That is a breakthrough finally!
C) What are you talking about? What men?
D) Rescuers are working 7/24 to reach the miners.
E) I hope all the miners would be fine after this catastrophic event.

8. Alex:
– Have you heard the name of this author before?
- Joanna:
– No, I haven't. He might be new.
- Alex:
– ----
- Joanna:
– It must be very good then. Let's buy it.
- A) Yes. This is his first novel, but apparently it is already a bestseller.
B) I can't seem to remember the author's name.
C) I loved that book. I want to read it again.
D) I read one of his novels, but I didn't like it.
E) Do you really have to be that ignorant?

SKILLS

1. - 8. sorularda, karşılıklı konuşmanın boş bırakılan kısmını tamamlayabilecek ifadeyi bulunuz.

1. Theo:

- The traffic is an absolute nightmare! Will we make it to the conference in time?

Bora:

- I hope so, because we're giving the first presentation.

Theo:

- ----

Bora:

- That's a good idea. Go ahead and maybe they'll have mercy on us.

- A) Is the conference today? I have completely forgotten about it.
- B) Maybe I should call them and reschedule our presentation.
- C) Let's turn around. This traffic won't lighten up in time, so it's no use.
- D) I never thought the traffic in this area could get so bad.
- E) Our presentation will be well received by the attendees.

2. David:

- Have you seen the news today?

Amos:

- No, I haven't. Something new about the killer of Ann Yates?

David:

- ----

Amos:

- It must be very difficult for her family to wait for the justice to be done.

- A) Ann Yates will be caught soon enough.
- B) Yes. The police say they are certain that her killer will be caught soon.
- C) No. Two men have died in a hot-air balloon crash in the north of the country.
- D) Just a riot in the prison by forty inmates.
- E) The New Year started with a lot of traumatic events.

3. Melis:

- I just saw this documentary on the benefits of acupuncture for back pain relief.

Edgar:

- Most of those procedures are a waste of money.

Melis:

- ----

Edgar:

- Maybe not, but it doesn't change my opinion either way.

- A) But there are many people that don't agree with you.
- B) Back pain affects most girls my age, so I take it seriously.
- C) Why don't you just watch the documentary and decide for yourself?
- D) In the long term, it's a very good investment of money.
- E) When you get older and experience such pain, you'll think that I am right.

4. Can:

- There is no reception here. Could I please use your phone?

Secretary:

- Of course, let me dial the number for you.

Can :

- It is an international number. Would that be a problem?

Secretary:

- ----

- A) Why are you still insisting on the same thing?
- B) No matter how hard I try, they won't let me to use my phone.
- C) I can't understand why it would cause a problem if I don't let you speak.
- D) Don't you see the reception desk over there? Go and use the one there!
- E) We can make an exception for once, but please keep it as short as possible.

5. Company director:
– The economic crisis is affecting our company adversely.
- Economic expert:
– ----
- Company director:
– Do you have a suggestion for us, then?
- Economic expert:
– Increase the numbers of international trading partners in order to have more markets to export products.
- A) I haven't realized that you have been affected at all.
B) I noticed this from your company's data, so some actions will need to be taken.
C) You should really close down the company until the crisis is over.
D) What's the use of seeking help? It's apparent that you'll go bankrupt soon.
E) It's not particularly affecting your company because your business practices are excellent.

6. Lucia:
– Will you be coming to the surprise party we are planning for Jill?
- Mine:
– I was thinking about it, but we have never been that close.
- Lucia:
– ----
- Mine:
– Leave the drinks to me then and call for anything I can do.
- A) What about talking about this now while drinking something at a café?
B) Why is that? As far as I know she is a very likable girl.
C) Cold drinks are the best choice for an occasion like this.
D) Then this is the perfect opportunity to begin a friendship, isn't it?
E) You could always call her and ask if it would be alright.

7. Anna:
– I believe bread is the best invention of modern world.
- Ben:
– ----
- Anna:
– Really? Do they have any proof?
- Ben:
– Yes. Traces of starch grains were found on some ancient grinding tools.
- A) I think there is a better invention than that.
B) I have my doubts about that. The cure for breast cancer could surpass that.
C) Space travel is far more interesting although it may not be counted as an invention.
D) A study suggests that cavemen made bread more than 30,000 years ago.
E) Actually, there are countless other inventions to name.

8. Khloe:
– Finally, I was able to get two tickets to the show.
- Jimmy:
– How come this show became so popular within a few weeks?
- Khloe:
– ----
- Jimmy:
– Well, I don't think it is only her. This may be one of the reasons but surely not the only one or the major one.
- A) I think it is the new public relations manager. She is good at promoting the show.
B) I think the whole story of the show has been changed.
C) Probably after some celebrities appeared on TV and said it was great.
D) It must be because of the new cast.
E) I don't know. I'm going to find out when I see it, I guess.

SKILLS

NAME:

SURNAME:

TOTAL:

• Her soru 12,5 puan değerindedir.

1. - 4. sorularda, karşılıklı konuşmanın boş bırakılan kısmını tamamlayabilecek ifadeyi bulunuz.

1. Salesman:

- I know that it is difficult to organize a vacation, so that's why we are here to help.

Jennifer:

- ----

Salesman:

- I am sorry to hear that you had bitter experiences.

Jennifer:

- I am sure, now you can understand my concerns.

- A) How much will you charge for your fees?
- B) I am really looking forward to this vacation.
- C) Last time I arranged a vacation with an agency, the hotel was a total joke.
- D) I would like to go to a seaside resort.
- E) I am on a limited budget, but I want to have a perfect vacation.

2. Rebecca:

- I believe that going to work boosts an individual's self-esteem.

Neil:

- ----

Rebecca:

- Because helping others can make the individual feel less selfish.

Neil:

- I see what you mean, I think I should find a job as soon as possible.

- A) Why would you want to talk about that now?
- B) What makes you say that?
- C) Are you trying to imply my joblessness?
- D) You always talk about work. Shut up!
- E) I've had enough of this conversation, see you tomorrow.

3. Lucy:

- I would like to order the king lobster lasagne and a glass of apple juice.

Waitress:

- ----

Lucy:

- In that case I would like the crab cake and the juice.

Waitress:

- Good choice! And for the gentleman?

- A) I'm afraid we've run out of lasagne. Sorry about that.
- B) Are you sure about that?
- C) We only provide self-service in this restaurant.
- D) I suggest exactly the same as it is my favourite.
- E) You should try the chef's special salad as well.

4. Bertha:

- Excuse me. I suppose I forgot my wallet here earlier this morning.

Jimmy:

- ----

Bertha:

- It's a blue wallet with a golden ribbon. Inside I've got a picture of my two grandchildren.

Jimmy:

- Ah, yes! Here it is. We have saved it for you.

- A) No, I'm afraid we haven't found anything.
- B) Is it possible that you are pretending not to pay for the dress?
- C) Indeed, it is your responsibility to call and inform me about the situation.
- D) Could you describe it for me please?
- E) Somebody has just come and taken it claiming that it was his wallet.

5. - 8. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun düşen cümleyi bulunuz.

5. During a job interview you are asked how much work experience you have. Since it is not much, you prefer not to tell anything specific, but rather point out another quality of yours that you hope to make up for it and say: ----

A) That's my weakest point. I am afraid it is only a year, but I am a quick learner.
B) How can one be expected to have experience if they are never taken on?
C) My experience might not be much, but I am sure my enthusiasm will quickly compensate for it.
D) It is the first time I have applied for the position of sales assistant.
E) It is two months since I quitted my last job, which I believe was not suitable for me as it involved office work rather than travelling.

6. You are the head manager of a project. The deadline is so near, and the team is not motivated. To raise their spirits, you say to them: ----

A) No one will be able to get a bonus until this project is completed.
B) You are doing great so far, and I know we, as a team, will manage to complete this project on time as well.
C) None of us has the privilege of dealing with our personal problems at the moment.
D) Although you have done your best so far, all of you seem to lose your enthusiasm to work on this project.
E) Unfortunately, everything we've done so far is wrong, so we need to plan everything from the beginning again.

7. You have been doing overtime all week. You are exhausted, and your boss asks you to work on the weekend as well. Enough is enough. You explain to him: ----

A) I would love to come. Am I going to be paid double of the hourly wage?
B) I am quite surprised that you really think that I would refuse it.
C) I am grateful for this opportunity. I don't know how to thank you.
D) Do you think I am stupid enough to come to work on the weekend?
E) I can't come on the weekend. I am already exhausted from the pace of this work.

8. You are at a shopping mall. There is a huge sale on everything; however, the queue for the cash register is long. You don't want to wait. You ask one of the ladies to let you jump in front of her, and you say: ----

A) You must have made a mistake because I was standing here before you.
B) I believe the security is calling your name; you should go and check.
C) There should be another cashier for people with only one item.
D) You could give in the parcels before me if you need.
E) Do you mind if I take your turn since I have an urgent meeting and I have only one item?

SKILLS

1. - 10. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun düşün cümleyi bulunuz.

1. In a discussion group, you are discussing how people get away with murder. You don't think people can get away with it. You say to your friends: ----
 - A) I believe convicts have genius minds that help them get away with everything.
 - B) It is the rule of the world; what goes around, comes around.
 - C) One way or another, a guilty conscience will give itself away either through forensic evidence or through confession.
 - D) Our police force is not adequate enough to nail down every criminal.
 - E) The new policy announced by the government will provide additional support for the needy.
2. A new employee has started to work in your team. You are the team leader. This new colleague is not very knowledgeable about the job. You want her to feel free about asking anything concerning the job. So you politely say: ----
 - A) You should find somewhere else to work as I see that you are not knowledgeable about the job.
 - B) You can ask me for help whenever you feel confused about something.
 - C) I have no time to teach you anything. You have to observe us and learn everything by yourself.
 - D) Do I look like your tutor? You need to find someone else to consult.
 - E) It is not my responsibility to train everyone, so you'd better try to learn the job by yourself.
3. You have been working too much without a break lately. You got most of the job done. There are only some minor things to do. There is a bank holiday next week, and you are looking forward to having a day off and relaxing. However, your boss has just announced that he needs everyone to work on the bank holiday. You feel so frustrated, and you try to reason with your boss. You say: ----
 - A) I'm sure you can make an exception as you know how hard I have been working lately and really need to take a day off to recharge my batteries.
 - B) It's a good thing that you have informed us about it early. Now I don't have to plan anything for that day.
 - C) If you force me to work on the bank holiday, I'm going to quit.
 - D) I wish I were in your shoes. In that case, I would have been a better manager.
 - E) I could keep on working without a break. I will be fine.
4. You are on the plane. Due to weather conditions, the journey has been dreadful so far. The lady who is sitting next to you is so afraid. You try to ease her stress. You say to her: ----
 - A) Is there anybody you would like to call before we crash?
 - B) Please calm down. We are almost there. I have been on flights worse than this and survived.
 - C) Did the pilot make an announcement about how to use the oxygen masks?
 - D) You know this is nothing when you think about the people who starve to death in their countries!
 - E) Just relax for God's sake! You are making me nervous.

5. You've realized that you're entirely out of shape while you are trying on new clothes, so you ask your college roommate: ----

- A) Can you help me with my geometry homework?
- B) Do you think I should change my hairstyle?
- C) Would you mind coming to work out with me twice a week?
- D) Shall we go out to eat tonight? I'm starving.
- E) What about ordering a supersize pizza and watch a movie?

6. Your brother has never worked in his whole life. He is asking you to lend him some money once again. You will not lend him any money this time, but you don't want your relation to be in jeopardy. You say: ----

- A) If you hadn't quit your job for such a tiny problem, you wouldn't be asking for money now.
- B) I know you need money, but you cannot rely on me all the time. You need to find a way to pay for your expenses.
- C) This is the last time I will lend you some money. From this day on, don't come to me with your financial problems.
- D) Being such a hard-working person, I'm sure you'll soon find a better job than the last one you had.
- E) How much exactly do you need? I'm broke myself too.

7. You are a great supporter of animal rights. You see these kids every day on the street literally torturing a puppy. So, you call their mother to inform her about the situation: ----

- A) Do you know that we have a new vet just living across the street?
- B) You should talk to your children straightaway due to their mistreatment to a little dog.
- C) Since they love animals, your kids get along so well with the puppy.
- D) Someone should take responsibility for what happened to that little puppy.
- E) I'd like you to join our society so that you can look after abandoned puppies there.

8. The lady living in the flat adjacent to you is constantly having noisy parties. Previously, you've asked twice to keep the noise down but to no avail. Tonight, you're feeling a bit ill, and when you hear the music coming from the flat, your roommate says to you: ----

- A) I'm sorry to bother you, but would you please keep the music down?
- B) I apologize; nobody told me you're not feeling well. Of course I'll postpone my party.
- C) I bet she'd gladly grant your request if you asked her.
- D) This lady is asking for it, you've shown enough patience already. Just call the police.
- E) I've talked to her twice before. Could you talk to her since she hasn't met you before?

9. Your job is to select the most talented people in a competition. The most difficult part is to tell them that they are not chosen. It is a delicate situation, since all the candidates are young and ambitious. So, you say to the one who has been eliminated: ----

- A) If it hadn't been for the others' objection, you would have been on the first rank.
- B) You need to lose more weight, otherwise you can't get a job in this business.
- C) You shouldn't have applied for such an endurance performance.
- D) You don't have the talent to keep up with the requirements of the show.
- E) I am sure you will have a better chance somewhere else next time.

10. You're listening to a lecture at the university, but the professor's speaking incoherently, so you ask him: ----

- A) I agree with what you're saying, but I don't understand how to implement it into practice.
- B) I'm sorry, I don't agree with this statement. Could I give another example?
- C) Why doesn't he speak up so we all can hear him?
- D) I'm sorry, but some of the points you have made conflict with what you've just said.
- E) Can you listen more carefully, sir?

SKILLS

1. - 10. sorularda, verilen duruma uygun düşün cümleyi bulunuz.

1. Your sister has been denied a job because of her pregnancy. She is overqualified for the position and is upset by the situation. Wanting to console her, you call and say: ----
 - A) Although you have a successful career, you should be aware that after the birth, things will have to change.
 - B) Our family has concerns about the well-being of your child under these working conditions.
 - C) With your credentials, you will always have many options to choose from.
 - D) I can't stop worrying about why they refused to hire you for that position.
 - E) That workplace is notorious for its racial discrimination.
2. You are at an art museum and are so impressed that you decide to pursue a career in arts. Your friend is an artist who wants to warn you about its drawbacks, so he turns to you and says: ----
 - A) Although the pieces displayed here are very impressive, they are not really that valuable.
 - B) One must really have a passion for art in order to make all the necessary sacrifices the field requires.
 - C) Did you know that each of these paintings is worth more than most of your belongings?
 - D) Why don't you consider working as the curator of this museum in the future?
 - E) If you are interested, I can take you to an art auction next week.
3. The principal of the school called you to inform you about your son's inappropriate manners. You believe your son is innocent. You want the disciplinary committee to evaluate the facts before reaching a conclusion. You say to them: ----
 - A) You are not being objective in this case, and I believe you need to re-evaluate the facts.
 - B) I think he deserves this for what he has done.
 - C) The last thing I want to deal with is his problems.
 - D) People change over time, but I don't think he has changed that much.
 - E) You need to take some responsibility for this event too.
4. A quick-tempered friend of yours isn't happy with his high school and the teachers, so he wants to transfer to another one immediately. You think his behaviour is very premature, so you caution him by saying: ----
 - A) Don't quit just yet. Do some research on other schools before you decide as you could end up in a worse situation.
 - B) I think this school is great, so stop complaining.
 - C) I wish I could offer you a spot in my class with my professor, she's the best.
 - D) Switching schools always solves the problem. Go ahead and do it as soon as possible.
 - E) You're going to beat me to it. I was thinking the same thing last week. Let's do it together.

5. Someone asks you where the closest bathroom in the building is. You have a rough idea about where it is, so trying to be as helpful as you can, you say: ----

A) I'm not a building layout, so there's no point in asking me. Sorry.
B) I know exactly where it is, so take these stairs, and you'll see the sign in front of you.
C) I have no idea, but why don't you just ask that man over there?
D) I clearly don't work here, so why are you asking me?
E) I don't want to mislead you, so you had better ask the security guard.

6. Your daughters argue over a doll. You want to break this habit of arguing over toys and teach them to share the doll. You say: ----

A) You had better stop fighting because I am getting angry.
B) I will say what you've done to your father; he knows how to deal with you.
C) I will not buy any new toys unless you learn how to share this one with each other.
D) Let's go shopping for new toys.
E) Everyone will only play with their own toys.

7. You are a writer. Your new book has just been released. You would like to thank your editor as she has done a marvellous job. You call her and say: ----

A) I would like to give her a present to show my gratitude.
B) You have to work harder to achieve an excellent performance.
C) Have you ever thought I could make it this far?
D) I would like to take this opportunity to point to some of the faults in the book.
E) You have really excelled yourself at editing this book, and I'm grateful to you for your hard work.

8. Your nephew has recently got his driving licence and is planning a car tour through Europe. Concerned, you express your disapproval by saying: ----

A) The highways in Europe are probably the safest in the world.
B) You cannot persuade me to go on such a tour with a novice driver like you.
C) It's a much more economic plan to travel through Europe by train.
D) It is always a good idea to gain experience before you take such a major step.
E) There are so many traffic accidents in this country that it takes courage to drive.

9. You ask your parents to help you with the school expenses; however, they refuse. You want to drop the subject and move on with no ill feelings. You say: ----

A) I know that you don't have any more issues, so why not?
B) I don't get you, how could you do that to your child?
C) I am ready to put all of this behind us. I'm sure I'll find a way to manage.
D) Receiving good education is very important for my future; you should help me.
E) I don't know whom I can ask for help when my own parents don't help me.

10. Your best friend has recently gained admission to many universities, but he can't make up his mind about which offer to accept. When he comes to you with his dilemma, you have a clear opinion in your mind about a specific university offer he should take. You say: ----

A) All the offers are comparable, so either one you choose will be fine.
B) Most of the offers are great, but I think one of them sticks out from the rest.
C) There's one that you shouldn't accept, but I have no idea about the others.
D) Just pick the one that's furthest away from your home. It would be both challenging and fun.
E) You should never hurry up while making up your mind.